

Waitangi Day Commemorations in Okains Bay

The Waitangi Day commemorations at Okains Bay are the largest and longest standing in the South Island with 2019 being the 44th consecutive commemoration.

Nau mai, Haere mai. Join us at the Okains Bay Maori and Colonial Museum for a family day to commemorate the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi.

Highlights include a powhiri (traditional welcome), hangi lunch, children's races and the paddling of our magnificent waka on the Opara River at 7:30am.

View the Museum's amazing collections and enjoy continuous demonstrations all day including bread baking in a traditional clay oven, master weavers, wood chopping and sheep shearing.

Crafts, stalls, pony rides, lolly scramble, sausage sizzle, espresso coffee, garden bar, cafeteria and more.

Gates open at 7am. Waka paddling at 7:30am. Pōwhiri (traditional welcome) commences at 10:00am.

Please bring cash. No ATM available.

When

10am

Where

Okains Bay Maori and Colonial Museum
1146 Okains Bay Road
Okains Bay

Pricing

Adults: 10.00
Children: 2.00

More Info

 Okains Bay Maori & Colonial Museum

 03 304 8611

Facilities

Cultural

Family